First Society, The: Sacrament Of Matrimony And The Restoration Of The Social Order

BK 265320 A 182 pp.
Hahn, Scott © 2018 Emmaus Road Publishing

In The First Society, Scott Hahn makes the claim that our society's ills and its cures are rooted in whether we reject or accept the divine graces made available through the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony. Man, he argues, is social in his very nature. We were created for community. As it was in the beginning, so it remains today; and the family, constituted through the Sacrament of Matrimony is the most basic building block of every society. If we corrupt marriage we will have a corrupt society. If we get marriage right, our society, through grace, will flourish. This is so because Matrimony, like all the sacraments, heals and elevates human nature. Matrimony is the sacrament of the lay vocation, of the vocation that builds our economies and our governments, that raises our children and fights our wars. Without it, our ambitions toward a just social order will remain forever foolhardy. With it, the seemingly impossible, a truly peaceful and humane civilization, becomes possible.

Holden, Rev. Marcus © 2017 Ignatius Press

In the Gospels we hear Jesus refer to his mother Mary as "Woman." This reference should draw our attention to the woman mentioned in Genesis, as well as in the book of Revelation. But who is this "Woman," and why is she so central in the history of Salvation? Discover the Catholic teaching about Mary, the mother of Jesus, and her important role in the Church and in the lives of Christians today. The dogmas of the Mother of God, Immaculate Conception, Perpetual Virginity, and Assumption are explained, along with other traditional beliefs and devotions to Mary. Commentary is provided by Rev. Marcus Holden, Rev. Andrew Pinsent, Sister Mary of the Trinity, Rev. Jeff Steel, and Joanne Bogle, along with a number of young people speaking about their faith and love of Our Blessed Lady.
